

„Good counsel means making complex legal contexts understandable, identifying risks at an early stage and enabling the right decisions to be taken with clarity and confidence.“

Legal and strategic advice backed by more than 30 years of experience at the bar

Three specialist law qualifications: commercial and corporate law, employment law, construction and architects' law

Analyzing complex legal issues – strategic, solution-oriented and grounded in practice.

Dr. Stephan Schulte
Attorney at Law

Trust. Strategy. Delivery.
– Developing legally sound solutions,
representing your interests successfully.

Expertise

30+ years of legal experience

– providing direction when decisions carry real weight

Three specialist fields – one strategic perspective

– connected thinking instead of isolated answers

Strategic advice & solution development

– assessing risks, creating scope for action

Companies, municipalities and individuals

– tailor-made solutions for every kind of challenge

Litigation and out-of-court representation

– a clear stance, strong arguments, decisive action

Recognized professional expertise

– Chair of the expert committee for construction and architects' law

Curriculum Vitae - Stephan Schulte

▶ 1997 – heute

Strotmann & Schulte Rechtsanwälte PartmbB

Attorney at Law

Advising companies, municipalities and private clients, and representing them before the courts. Developing bespoke, commercially viable solutions for demanding and complex legal questions.

▶ 1995-1997

Law firm in Stuttgart

Attorney at Law

Shaped his professional profile through advising on complex legal matters and representing clients in demanding conflict and dispute situations.

▶ 1994-1995

Faculty of Law, Eberhard Karls University of Tübingen

Doctorate

In-depth academic examination of legal and administrative law questions as the foundation for analytical and strategically oriented advice.